From the Baron & Baroness:

To the noble people of Dun Carraig,

February has finally ended, and we look longingly to spring and warmer weather. .. or perhaps more stable weather.... actually, lately I guess we just have to settle with what we get! If we get 70-degree days in January, it seems to put the idea of snow in June in a more probable light! Let's hope for a pleasant spring to enjoy the many exciting events coming up.

Early March holds the Kingdom Art's and Science Festival. We are proud to have Baroness Mary Isabel represent Dun Carraig in the static display this year. Give her a warm send off and wish her luck as she leaves to present her weaving to the kingdom. She truly does some beautiful work. Vivat, Molly!

In early April, Coronation will be held not far from our lands. Please join us as Robert and Denise are crowned to be our next king and queen. ***Remember*** Dun Carraig has begun collecting items for a chest to be presented to their majesties. Please consider donating items to the chest. So far, items that have been donated include scroll blanks, a pen case, the chest itself, silk scarves ... and many more that have slipped our mind at this moment. Items can really be anything that may be of use to their majesties (pretty personal gifts, candles, fabric, trim, pouches, goodies, beadwork, etc. etc.)

Come one and all to Crown Tournament in May!! Several barony members may be fighting this year for the privilege to become the new Prince of Atlantia!! It's not to late to enter! Every fighter from the skilled knight to the newly authorized is worthy and welcome to fight in Crown. You never know... a young gentleman once pulled a sword out of a stone!

Well, this seems quite a list of activities, and we haven't even mentioned all the local group events occurring, our own event in June, and much needed preparation for Pennsic. Don't stress, or feel you have to attend everything. Just know that our day shade is always open, we love to carpool and caravan, and we'll be glad to help any way we can if you want to attend an event. Having our Dun Carraig friends together at an event makes for an exceptional day of good conversation with good company.

In closing, another Vivat to all involved with cooking, serving, and entertainment at the South Potomac dinner for Valentine's Day – especially Muirghen for organizing, planning, and running a fabulous feast. The dinner guests were the first true representation we've ever seen of "stuffed". Comments have been floating around the barony of “that’s how Dun Carraig used to be!” We’d like to challenge those who participated to think on the answer to “why?”. What did we do (or not do) that made that experience so much better than those recently? Capturing those answers may help us to grow in the future, and we’d be very interested to hear your thoughts.... But for now... VI-VANT!!!!

In service always,
Jonathas and Amalia

From the Chronicler:

Greetings Dun Carraig,

This is my last issue. It has been a pleasure to serve. Please welcome our new Chronicler, Lylie! Vivat!

Yours In service,
Cathal

February Baronial Business Meeting Minutes

February Meeting issues tabled until March due to low attendance.

From the Mistress Of Arts & Sciences:

Unto the gentles of Dun Carraig does Mary Isabel of Heatherstone send greetings.

Many folks in the Barony have gotten their creative juices flowing. We put on our best clothes and most gentle graces to attend "Court of Philip the Good". A caravan of Dun Carraig members made the long journey to University, both as teachers and students. And Their Excellencies are finalizing Their choice for their Bardic representative at Kingdom Arts & Science Festival in March.

Please consider submitting your projects for display at this event. We oftentimes gripe about not having feedback from qualified artisans. This is an excellent opportunity for you to have your skills evaluated by some of the most talented artisans in the whole kingdom (and to provide moral support for your poor A&S Champion). If you cannot attend, please consider sending your project with me. I would be happy to bring it to KASF and display it for you.

We are making plans for our upcoming Challenge of the Heart event in June. The Dun Carraig A&S Champion will be chosen on that day. Your entry does not need to comply with the Competition/Display themes in order to be considered for this honor. I will be placing an "open display" area for entries that do not match the criteria set out in the competition theme. For those of us with a competitive bend, the event will feature something to please almost everyone. We will be hosting a "Best Token of Love" competition (documentation required, any medium is acceptable). We will also be hosting a "Best Field Presence" competition (to be decided by the Ladies of the Gallery). "Field Presence" will consist of appearance, bearing and goodly speech. We will also be sponsoring a fun display: "A&S Projects that DIDN'T Work". Documentation is not required, but you must specify what the item was intended to be, what went wrong and what you learned from the experience.

Winner will be determined by the A&S Officer and special consideration will be given to tragically humorous outcomes. Finally, we will be offering pavilion space for artisans to get together and work on their projects by the fighting field. It will be an opportunity to meet & greet other artisans, additionally providing newer members an opportunity to watch artisans working at their craft and answering questions.

A&S Nights are continuing every 2nd and 4th Tuesday at 7:30pm. If you are interested in teaching a class, please feel free to contact me at:
