Old Business:

Questions on proposed new financial policy (copy was appended to February Clyffe Notes) – formal vs personal events, what goes to finance committee; age of committee members. Since age must be at least 18 to handle money, change from age 16 to age 18 for member of finance committee was debated. Voted to change minimum age for finance committee membership to 18; vote passed. Vote passed to accept policy, with the age change.

New Business:

Archery event – got site nailed down. Going to be a curia, kept to an hour tops in the morning. Working on overflow parking.

Heather – pondering being autocrat for Birthday, but is supposed to do Lochmere Arrow. Can combine or do 2 events in about 2 months. Need help with theme, ideas. Discussed Arabian Nights theme, medieval movie theme. Can ask list. First & last weeks of September are only possible dates for combined event. Need a cook.

Celtic Society thing on list:

Khadir read a statement regarding the history and financial procedures involved in the catering of the annual Medieval Feast of the Celtic Society of Southern Maryland. In his statement, the catering originated from casual conversation with a CSSM officer while Khadir was giving bagpipe lessons to the officer's son. Khadir negotiated a per-plate fee and did the cooking, asking the barony for volunteers and for use of serving gear, as an act of community outreach. Each year, any profits were donated to SCA, supplemented by personal funds from Khadir and (in some years) a voluntary donation from CSSM. In 2012, the meal generated only a small residual; Khadir pledged to donate $200 anyway, but was delayed by the pressure of a new job and health issues. The statement also emphasizes Khadir's long service to the SCA and his severe displeasure at the actions of officers this year.

Her Excellency the Baroness circulated a folder of past newsletters and emails documenting the Barony's past involvement in the feast, but discussion was curtailed by the arrival of closing time at Big Larry's.

For those interested in reading Khadir's statement and/or the folder's documents, a full copy may be obtained by email request to Chronicler@DunCarraig.net

B & B's Report

Anyone traveling south is welcome to field with His Excellency. Her Excellency is staying home. Chris will process, anyone else is welcome. At Royal Archery event, their Highnesses want to hold curia there. Everyone encouraged to come out & shoot.

Seneschal's Report

FYI, there is a new interim Kingdom seneschal. New waiver secretary, cleaning up past waivers that never made it to where they are supposed to go. Any waivers from events, can give to seneschal to send (or send direct to waiver secretary).

Chronicler's Report

Newsletter out. New cover pictures of Labours of the Months from National Library of the Netherlands (used with permission).

Herald's Report

Working on things, has a waiting line, still learning how to handle herald position.

Chatelaine's Report

Karl's wife having a demo April 13 at PD Brown library in Waldorf – Day in the Middle Ages. People could demonstrate. Not a lot of space.

Quartermaster's Report

Need to find storage area in center of county. Shed was purchased with baronial funds, will need to handle disposition properly. Seneschal & Exchequer will check on disposition. Quartermaster will check price on some storage rentals. Others are encouraged to look around & send seneschal a quote (mention that it's for a nonprofit group).

Minister of Arts & Sciences Report

Warrant expired 3 months ago, does not have energy to continue & is stepping down. Will leave stuff with seneschal for successor.

Minister of Minor's Report

No report.

Minister of the Lists' Report

No event, no report.

Knight Marshal's Report

About 3 people per practice. If there's no marshall, it's not a practice, practice should not happen. Somebody turned in a pair of surcoats from war. 2 new fighters in armor this month. Seneschal got certificate of appreciation from Calvert County Parks & Recreation. KM working on flier.

Chirurgeon's Report

No report

Webminister's Report

Web address book up & running. Archery event up on facebook.

Exchequer's Report

- 1) Registry balance was $5881.08 as of 03/04/13.
  - a. Checks for $200.00 (donation) from Hank Steinfeld and
  - b. Check for $225.00 from Celtic Society of Southern Maryland (Medieval Feast) – thank you Hank!
- 2) Check for $420.00 received from Kingdom today
  - a. Partial reimbursement of the $600.00 contributed last year towards settlement of the lawsuit
  - b. Being paid out because the SCA's insurance company settled for 2/3 of what it should have paid us (it originally refused and we sued).
  - c. Many thanks to the BoD and Corporate for pursuing this matter so effectively, and to Kingdom for some promptly distributing the funds!
- 3) New Baronial checks have been ordered & received: Price was actually $31.20.
  - a. It was taken directly from our account
  - b. Since it was over $25.00, do we need a vote? No, under $50.
- 4) Baronial Financial Policy up for a vote today.
  - a. Revised Policy to be voted on by Barony (was approved)
  - b. If Barony approves, send Policy to Kingdom Exchequer for review (no, to Serena as Kingdom policy reviewer)
  - c. If Kingdom approves, Policy takes effect
  - d. Policy published in newsletter for two months running (no, one month[per Serena]; draft Policy was published in February 2013 Clyffe Notes)

Chronicler's Choice

One Thousand and One Nights

Translated from Arabic by Richard F. Burton, and published in ten volumes, with extensive footnotes (London, 1885-1888). This Medieval collection of tales comprises material from parts of Africa, the Middle East, the Caucasus, Iran, and parts of India, all areas ruled by the Caliphate at one period or another. All ten volumes, unexpurgated. Zipped HTML files prepared by Robert Bedrosian.
